This course will go beyond the box scores and the statistics of the sporting world and instead delve into the issues surrounding sport in society. Some of these issues include: race, gender, education, youth in sport, religion, homophobia, mass media, violence, sports and social mobility, deviance in sport, history, and politics. While many may be surprised that these issues exist in the world of sports, this class will debate whether sport is a reflection of society. We will also attempt to answer the more general question of, what is the nature and history of sport?

Requirements: Attendance! Class discussion. There will be reading responses, written responses to movies and guest lectures, and a term paper. Reading requirements: A reader that MUST be purchased, without exceptions, price TBA. Cash or check.

A tentative schedule follows:

Week One: Defining the sociology of sport: What is it, why study it?

Writing Assignments: term paper due, movie review

The writing assignments will be discussed in further detail, as we get closer to them. The prompt for the term paper will be handed out during week two. The reading assignments should be completed at the start of that week. In other words, for week three, the readings on youth and sport should be done by July 5th. By July 19th, you should have all of the reading done, with the exception of Positive/Ali, which must be done by the 21st. Please feel free to ask questions about anything that is unclear as the class progresses. I am here to help and make this an educational and enjoyable five weeks for both you and me.

Important Note: This is a tentative schedule that is subject to change. Not all of the guest speakers have been confirmed.
