SUMMER ACADEMY

NAVIGATING the RESEARCH UNIVERSITY

COURSE DESCRIPTION

“Navigating the Research University” explores critical engagement in education in the context of a research university. This course introduces ways to participate in the institution's academic life with a particular emphasis for incoming international and first-year students. It also investigates strategies for clarifying education goals and devising a plan for success here or at any UC campus.

COURSE GOALS AND STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

To address the broader issues for incoming first-year student and academic success, this course presents these course goals and corresponding student learning outcomes:

1. To assist students with making a smooth transition to the research university while they become productive members of a community of scholars. After completing this course, students will be able to identify their challenges and opportunities at the research university especially including knowledge of campus resources and an increased awareness of cultural norms.
2. To guide students to explore differences in academic expectations at the research university while enabling them to maintain a sense of academic self-efficacy. After completing this course, students will be able to demonstrate acceptable academic performance as they adjust formerly successful academic strategies to meet increased expectations at the research university.
3. To enable students to refine their academic skills so as to achieve academic excellence. After completing this course, students will be able to implement effective approaches to reading; demonstrate introductory level knowledge of university-level writing expectations in their expected discipline; identify and practice critical thinking skills appropriate to their major discipline; and adapt to the fast pace of the quarter system with revised time management strategies.
4. To introduce students to the importance of developing essential relationships which will enrich their academic experience. After completing this course, students will be able to meet and connect with faculty, especially during faculty office hours; demonstrate use of study groups; demonstrate use of advisers in their colleges and departments; and engage in participation with at least two campus resources.
5. To prepare students for future opportunities. After completing this course, students will be able to investigate resources to assist with setting career goals; understand the contributions an internship can make in a student's educational experience; and develop understanding of the role of graduate school in one's career goals as well as the identification of potential programs and the application process.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Attend and actively participate in class two times per week. If you miss all or part of a class, your final course grade may be affected. Absenteeism can result in failing the course.
2. Complete the assigned reading and all daily assignments in preparation for each meeting. Due on Canvas.
3. Complete several other assignments, including responses to a New York Times article on higher education, a photo essay on #BLM, and a series of articles about higher education and COVID; attending two workshops; composing a letter to a future student and delineating goals in a final paper analyzing your transition to the university.

COURSE GRADING POLICY

Class attendance and participation 25%

Daily assignments including reading responses (three in total)
35%

Attending two workshops and writing synopses, presentation on a campus resource; and a final paper, letter to a future student, campus map, and draft of final analyzing your goals and strategies for success. 40%

TEXTS & COURSE WEBSITE

The textbook for this course is Navigating the Research University. It's available as an ebook from the campus bookstore, Bay Tree

Bookstore: https://ucsc.verbacompare.com/comparison?id=SSII20\_STEV\_026\_01 (Links to an external site.)

It's widely available online too. The Bay Tree link above does offer other options. Additionally, if you can't afford the book, please don't hesitate to get in touch and I'll see about a complimentary copy or one at a reduced price.

All other readings will be links to articles and webpages.

Also, as a UCSC student, you have a subscription to the New York Times. The Student Union Assembly has attained funding so that all undergraduate and graduate students can enjoy a free digital New York Times subscription \(Links to an external site.\). Please activate your subscription since we'll be reading articles from the NYT.

Zoom etiquette

Please have your computer camera on during class. Personal message me on Zoom (chat with Brij only) or email me if you can't have your camera on due to circumstances or technical issues.

Disability Resource Center

From the DRC: "UC Santa Cruz is committed to creating an academic environment that supports its diverse student body. If you are a student with a disability who requires accommodations to achieve equal access in this course, please submit your Accommodation Authorization Letter from the Disability Resource Center (DRC) to me privately during my office hours or by appointment, preferably within the first two weeks of the quarter. At this time, I would also like us to discuss ways we can ensure your full participation in the course. I encourage all students who may benefit from learning more about DRC services to contact the DRC by phone at 831-459-2089 or by email at drc@ucsc.edu." *I'll add that I'm happy to help you with this.

Title IX:

The university cherishes the free and open exchange of ideas and enlargement of knowledge. To maintain this freedom and openness requires objectivity, mutual trust, and confidence; it requires the absence of coercion, intimidation, or exploitation. The principal responsibility for maintaining these conditions must rest upon those members of the university community who exercise most authority and leadership: faculty, managers, and supervisors.

The university has therefore instituted a number of measures designed to protect its community from sex discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual violence, and other related prohibited conduct. Information about the Title IX OfficeLinks to an external site., the online reporting link \(Links to an external site.\), applicable campus resourcesLinks to an

The Title IX/Sexual Harassment Office is located at 105 Kerr Hall. In addition to the online reporting option, you can contact the Title IX Office by calling 831-459-2462.

Policy on Academic Integrity

Summer Session 2020:

Academic integrity is the cornerstone of a university education. Academic dishonesty diminishes the university as an institution and all members of the university community. It tarnishes the value of a UCSC degree. All members of the UCSC community have an explicit responsibility to foster an environment of trust, honesty, fairness, respect, and responsibility. All members of the university community are expected to present as their original work only that which is truly their own. All members of the community are expected to report observed instances of cheating, plagiarism, and other forms of academic dishonesty in order to ensure that the integrity of scholarship is valued and preserved at UCSC. In the event a student is found in violation of the UCSC Academic Integrity policy, he or she may face both academic sanctions imposed by the instructor of record and disciplinary sanctions imposed either by the provost of his or her college or the Academic Tribunal convened to hear the case. Violations of the Academic Integrity policy can result in dismissal from the university and a permanent notation on a student's transcript. For the full policy and disciplinary procedures on academic dishonesty, students and instructors should refer to the Academic Integrity pageLinks to an external site. at the Division of Undergraduate Education.

Workshops

You are required to attend two and write a brief synopsis (1-2¶s) of each. You're encouraged to attend all the workshops and will be granted extra credit for each additional workshop you attend and turn in a summary for.
