Sections: There will be two optional sections held a week. The Section will be held by Alex Tessner (atessner@ucsc.edu). Section will be a place where we can work problems together and talk through concepts and any and all questions you may have! Notes will be posted to the files tab so you may access them afterwards.

Section A will be held via Zoom on Tuesdays @ 3:00p.m. (see canvas page for the link)

Section B will be held via Zoom on Thursdays @ 10:30a.m. (see canvas page for the link)

TA Office Hours: There will be one office hour held by Alex Tessner via Zoom on Tuesdays @ 10:30a.m. (see canvas page for the link)

(Please first email me if you plan to join office hours)
Textbook: Biocalculus: Calculus, Probability, Statistics for the Life Sciences, 1st Edition

WebAssign (required): All homework and exams will be given through WebAssign, an online platform separate from Canvas. WebAssign is also linked to your textbook (Biocalculus), published by CENGAGE. Please use the class key ucsc 1655 1920 (don’t forget the ucsc) to enroll on WebAssign. Make sure to enter your student ID correctly.

Grading Policy:

- Midterm 20%
- WebAssign 40%
- Quizzes 20%
- Final 20%

Extra Credit: You can receive 5 extra points for completing 5 participation surveys. (each survey is 1 points.)

Small Group Tutoring: Small Group Tutoring (SGT) supports students academically to advance educational equity by designing inclusive learning environments outside of the classroom. In SGT, you can expect the Tutor to facilitate cooperative group activities designed to have students work together on the course content and develop study skills for the course. SGT is offered at least three times each week for the entire quarter. The Tutor is an undergraduate student who took the class, did well, and is trained to facilitate group sessions to focus on students needs to succeed in the course. SGT is open to all students enrolled in the class and they must sign up on our online system: TutorTrac. When students sign up for SGT, they are committing to attend every week.

Details at: https://lss.ucsc.edu/index.html and check the home page of our class on canvas!

Midterm: The midterm will be available on Canvas on July 7 2021 at 1pm (PDT) until July 8 at 1pm (PDT). Once you start the exam on Canvas, you will have precisely 2 hours to complete the whole exam. Therefore, you can only start once and will have to finish in 2 hours once started.

Final: Final exam will be available on Canvas on July 23 2021 at 8 am (PDT) until July 24 2021 at 8 am (PDT). Once you start the exam on Canvas, you will have precisely 3 hours to complete the whole exam. Therefore, you can only start once and will have to finish in 3 hours once started.
Quizzes: There will be 4 quizzes on Canvas, each worth 5% of your grade (20% in total). The quizzes will be closely related to lectures and they are designed to check your progress, and understanding of the material covered in the class. Once you start the Quiz on Canvas, you will have limited time to complete it.

Surveys: These are extra credit. There are 5 surveys and if you complete, you will directly get the full points. During the survey, you will be asked to give feedback on the lectures, assignments.

DRC: UC Santa Cruz is committed to creating an academic environment that supports its diverse student body. If you are a student with a disability who requires accommodations to achieve equal access in this course, please submit your Accommodation Authorization Letter from the Disability Resource Center (DRC) to me by email, preferably within the first two weeks of the quarter. I would also like us to discuss ways we can ensure your full participation in the course. I encourage all students who may benefit from learning more about DRC services to contact DRC by phone at 831-459-2089 or by email at drc@ucsc.edu.

Title IX: The Title IX Office is committed to fostering a campus climate in which members of our community are protected from all forms of sex discrimination, including sexual harassment, sexual violence, and gender-based harassment and discrimination. Title IX is a neutral office committed to safety, fairness, trauma-informed practices, and due process.

The Title IX Office is working remotely and is conducting meetings and interviews via zoom and phone. If you want to make a report or request a consult, you can expect the fastest response by using their online reporting link. For questions about making a report, your reporting responsibilities, and/or questions about the UC Policy on Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment(https://policy.ucop.edu/doc/4000385/SVSH) call 831-459-2462.

Important Summer Session 1 Remote 2021 Deadlines:

Drop: Monday, June 28 (tuition reversal)

Request for W: Friday, July 9 (NO tuition reversed)

Summer is unique. You will not be dropped for non-attendance or non-payment. You must drop yourself. Dropping before the deadline results in a full-tuition reversal/refund. Withdraw posts a W for the grade and full tuition is charged (no refund). You cannot withdraw from a course in your portal, you must fill out the DocuSign form on the summer website. For all dates and deadlines, including change of grade option (P/NP) and grades due, here is the summer academic calendar:

https://summer.ucsc.edu/studentlife/index.html

For questions about dropping, requesting a W grade for a course, or withdrawing from the summer quarter, email summer@ucsc.edu.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: Academic integrity is taken extremely seriously. You CANNOT search or post any of the assignments (quizzes, exams, homework) on any websites (including Chegg!). You CANNOT collaborate during midterm, final, and quizzes. For homework, you are encouraged to discuss problems together but make sure to complete your homework on your own. If any of these rules are not followed, you will receive 0 from that assignment and may be reported for a violation of academic integrity. See the details on https://ue.ucsc.edu/academic-misconduct.html
