Analysis Papers
- Analysis papers are designed to offer students an opportunity to practice critical thinking and analysis skills regarding course content.
- Students will analyze an assigned media source and compare the representation in the source with course content.
- The detailed assignment for each 3–4-page analysis paper is available on canvas.
- Due at 11:59 pm PST on 8/13 and 8/27.

Classwork
- Each class period students will complete brief assignments, independently and in groups, about the content material and their own learning.
- The highest scoring 8 out of 10 possible assignments will be calculated toward the final grade.
- Due at 11:59 pm PST after class.

Homework
- Students will complete homework assignments practicing critical thinking and analysis skills necessary to succeed on the analysis papers and by evaluating their own work.
- Specific homework assignments will be listed on Canvas for weeks 1, 2, & 4.
- Due at 11:59 pm PST Fridays select weeks.

Quizzes
- Quizzes include 10-15 multiple choice questions.
- Students can take each quiz twice; the highest score counted toward their final grade.
- Quizzes are open book, note, and lecture. Quizzes are not open friend.
- Quizzes are available Thursdays at 12:01 am and close and are due at 11:59 pm PST Fridays. Grades will be posted Saturdays.

Course Policies
- Homework, response papers, and analysis papers will be accepted with a 10% penalty for up to one week late.
- Quizzes and classwork will not be accepted late.
- No work will be accepted after 11:59 pm PST on 8/29.
- Be aware of the pace and expectations of a summer class!
